

And now for an unpaid political announcement (apologies to COCHRAN & CAPEHART)

3. Summertime Songmaker Blues – in C

Well, I'm gonna raise a fuss, I'm a gonna raise a holler – da-da-da,doo (x2)
All our money in the bank can't even earn a dollar – da-da-da,doo (x2)
Every time we poll the board, to try to get a date
The board says, "No dice, we still got a zero rate"
Sometimes I wonder what we're a gonna do
There must be a cure for these summertime blues – da-da-da,doo (x2)

The members all told me that we gotta earn some dough quick– da-da-da,doo (x2)
If we wanna give out grants to support folk music – da-da-da,doo (x2)
But we didn't get approval, it made me feel sad
No grants to Topanga for any lass or lad
Sometimes I wonder what we're a gonna do
There must be a cure for these summertime blues – da-da-da,doo (x2)

For another 3 months, we've lost money to inflation – da-da-da,doo (x2)
Our board was gridlocked like the United Nations – da-da-da,doo (x2)
I called up my Congressman but he said "quote"
"I'd like to help you son, but on this board I got no vote"
Sometimes I wonder what we're a gonna do
There must be a cure for these summertime blues – da-da-da,doo (x2)

Well, I'm gonna raise a fuss, I'm gonna raise a holler – da-da-da,doo (x2)
Let's get our money workin' an' earn some tax-free dollars – da-da-da,doo (x2)
Ed found some Vanguard funds that look pretty green
If we settle on one, then we're out of this mess clean
So when it's time to vote, that's what we should do
Investing is the cure for these summertime blues – da-da-da,doo (x2)
Yes investing is the cure for these summertime blues – da-da-da,doo (x2; ↑ last note)
